Unit #/Title
1A/Narrative

Time Frame
3 weeks

Stage 1 - Identify Desired Results

Standards

- CC.1.4.2.M Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events.
- CC.1.4.2.N Establish a situation and introduce a narrator and/or characters.
- CC.1.4.2.O Include thoughts and feelings to describe experiences and events to show the response of characters to situations.
- CC.1.4.2.P Organize a short sequence of events, using temporal words to signal event order; provide a sense of closure. (not in 1st quarter)
- CC.1.4.2.R Demonstrate a grade-appropriate command of the conventions of standard English grammar, usage, capitalization, punctuation, and spelling. Capitalize proper nouns. Use commas and apostrophes appropriately. Spell words drawing on common spelling patterns. Consult reference material as needed. (not in 1st quarter)
- CC.1.4.2.T With guidance and support from adults and peers, focus on a topic and strengthen writing as needed by revising and editing.
- CC.1.4.2.W Recall information from experiences or gather information from provided sources to answer a question.
- CC.1.4.2.X Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.

Big Ideas

- Purpose influences a writer’s choice of content and details
- Rules of grammar, spelling, and mechanics support understanding between writers/speakers and readers/listeners
- Writers use craft techniques learned from mentor authors to describe and elaborate on their writing.
- Writers edit and revise to make their writing more powerful.

Essential Questions

- How do I develop into an effective writer?
- How does the quality of my writing affect the reader?
- How does knowing parts of speech make me a better writer?
- How do writers share personal experiences through writing?
- How do writers edit and revise to strengthen their writing?

Content
- Personal Narrative
- Conventions

Skills
- Narrative Writing (Personal):
  - identify the audience and write to them
  - begin with an introductory sentence (introduced: sound, surprising fact, question, dialogue, setting)
  - write to a single theme (focus)
  - describe the setting
  - introduce characters
  - identify problem or conflict
  - events are written sequentially
  - write in the first person
  - use sensory details to develop the story
- write a concluding sentence (introduced: strong feeling, strong image, lesson learned, humor, hope or wish)
- include relevant illustrations

- Conventions
  - capitalize sentence beginnings
  - capitalize the pronoun “I”
  - correctly use end punctuation (period and question mark)
  - use conventional spelling for high frequency and learned words
  - apply phonetic patterns to spell words correctly (consonants, blends, and short vowels)
